

Before the Honorable Circuit Court of Appeals of
May 2, 1858
Petition of Plaintiff
for a writ of habeas corpus to have me released from the custody of Sheriff S. J. Smith that he has no jurisdiction properly in his hands nor has he power of attorney nor does he have the power to do anything more than to send me back to be tried by the court which I am now in

S.

Henry Fanchamps
Examined and Rejected

I for want of documents affidavit
S. W. McCoy has no right to swear to the claim by the laws of the Country, belong to Mr.
Fanchamps until he knows his right away because the law provides the principal has paid his debts either some other way and until this fact is shown it cannot be admitted

~~Henry Fanchamps~~

H. F.